Application for waiver of signature

This declaration must accompany your absent voting application

Electors wishing to use an absent vote (voting by post or proxy) are normally required to provide a sample signature for security purposes. If you cannot provide a consistent handwritten signature you are entitled to apply for the requirement to provide a sample signature to be waived.

If you need to apply for a waiver of signature, please complete all sections of this form using black ink and BLOCK LETTERS and return this form with your absent vote application.
