

Application to vote by emergency proxy in Scotland based on COVID-19

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

If you are self-isolating based on advice from Scottish Government or a medical practitioner that you became aware of after 5pm on the sixth working day before the poll and you are unable to vote in person at your polling station, you can apply to vote by emergency proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can apply until 5pm on the day of the poll.

Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the emergency proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you need to vote by proxy.
- Make sure all sections of the form are complete. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact us.
- Return your form to us by email at ero@grampian-ero.gov.uk or by post to Grampian Electoral Registration Officer, Woodhill House, Westburn Road, Aberdeen, AB16 5GE

This form can only be used after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll and must reach us before 5pm on the day of the poll.

You must already be registered to vote, before applying for a proxy vote or emergency proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote

This form and these deadlines only apply for local elections in Scotland.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidates or parties.
- The elections team at your council will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.

Privacy statement

We will only use the information you give us for electoral purposes. We will look after personal information securely and we will follow data protection legislation.
