

Application to vote by emergency proxy based on imprisonment in Scotland

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

This form is designed for use if you cannot vote in person at your polling station because of your detention in prison and you are applying to vote by proxy (someone else voting on your behalf) in a particular election after 5pm on the sixth day before the poll for that election.

You must have been living in Scotland before your prison sentence and be serving a term of imprisonment of 12 months or less.

You will be eligible to vote in local council elections and Scottish Parliament elections. You cannot vote in elections to the UK Parliament. Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

Another prisoner cannot be your proxy if they are also detained in prison on the date of the poll.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the emergency proxy vote application form if you are registered to vote in Grampian.
- Make sure all sections of the form are complete. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact us.
- Return your form to us by email at eproxy@grampian-ero.gov.uk or by post to Grampian Electoral Registration Officer, Woodhill House, Westburn Road, Aberdeen, AB16 5GE . Pre-paid addressed envelopes should be in the prison library.

This form can only be used after 5pm on the sixth day before the date of the poll.

You must already be registered to vote before applying for a proxy vote or emergency proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote This form and these deadlines only apply in Scotland.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidates and parties.
- The elections team at your council will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.

Privacy statement

We will only use the information you give us for electoral purposes. We will look after personal information securely and we will follow data protection legislation. We will not give personal information about you or any personal information you may provide on other people to anyone else or another organisation unless we have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as vested in the Electoral Registration Officer as set out in the Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations.
