

Application to vote by post in UK Parliament elections in Scotland (signature waiver)

Voting by post

This form applies only in Scotland.

You must be eligible to vote, and registered, to get a postal vote.

You can use this form to apply to vote by post in UK Parliament elections.

UK Parliament elections include UK Parliamentary general elections, by-elections, and recall petitions.

You can apply to vote by post for a particular election, for a set period of time, or for a maximum period of three years.

Your local electoral registration office will confirm the duration of your postal vote. When your postal vote expires you will need to apply for a new one to continue voting by post.

You will need to use a different form to apply for a postal vote in Scottish Parliament and council elections.

For more information on postal voting and other ways to apply, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/postalvote.

Postal votes can be sent to addresses in the UK and abroad.

How do I apply to vote by post?

- Fill in the postal vote application form.
- Make sure you complete all required sections of the form and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office.
- If your application has missing or incorrect information, your local electoral registration office will contact you. You may need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office.

Please do not return your form to The Electoral Commission.

The deadline for returning your postal vote application is 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

If you are not registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a postal vote.

The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- When an election is going to be held, your ballot paper will be sent to you in the post. For more information on the delivery of the postal ballot pack, you can contact the elections office at your local council.
- Your postal ballot pack will contain instructions for voting by post and returning your postal vote.
- Make sure you return your postal vote so that it arrives by the deadline, otherwise it will not be counted.

Privacy statement

We will only use the information you give us for electoral purposes. We will look after personal information securely and we will follow data protection legislation. We will not give personal information about you or any personal information you may provide on other people to anyone else or another organisation unless we have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as vested in the Electoral Registration Officer as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations.
